

John Oyston
North American Native Plant Society

Native Plants: Beautiful,
Important, Threatened

What can you do?

Learn more about native plants

Buy native plants

Grow them on your garden or in public places

Go and visit them growing naturally

Political actions

- Give every child the chance to grow a native plant from seed and plant it in a schoolyard.
- Lobby for planting local native plants in public places, including parks and roadside verges.
- Encourage people to plant native plants in their front and back yards.
- Ban the sale of invasive plants, such as Norway maple.

NORTH AMERICAN
NATIVE PLANT SOCIETY

...dedicated to the study, conservation, cultivation and restoration of North America's native flora.

NORTH AMERICAN
NATIVE PLANT SOCIETY

New Events
SIGN UP NOW TO RECEIVE
THE LOCAL SCOOP'S NEW LETTER
Receive a free copy of the local scoop's new letter. This letter will contain information on upcoming events, new plants, and more. It's a great way to stay up to date on all the latest news in the native plant world.

- Free copy of the local scoop's new letter
- Free copy of the local scoop's new letter
- Free copy of the local scoop's new letter
- Free copy of the local scoop's new letter
- Free copy of the local scoop's new letter
- Free copy of the local scoop's new letter
- Free copy of the local scoop's new letter
- Free copy of the local scoop's new letter
- Free copy of the local scoop's new letter
- Free copy of the local scoop's new letter

Butterflies of Southern & Eastern Ontario
By [Author Name]

grass scapes

HOUSE

NAAPS Memberships

PLANT SALE: Markham Civic Centre, early may

Proposed Ontario Place Park

THE SITE TODAY

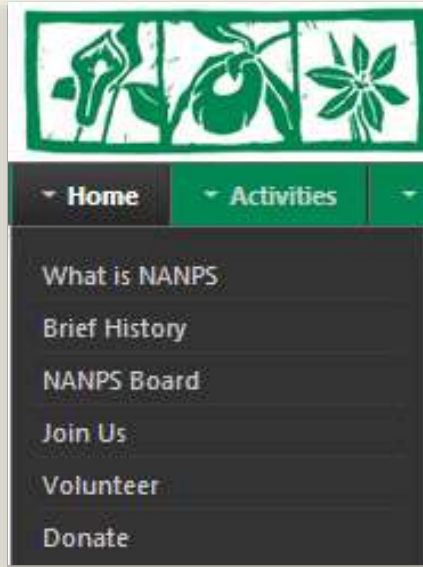

URBAN PARK + WATERFRONT TRAIL
AT ONTARIO PLACE

This could be anywhere, there is nothing “Ontario” here.
Where are the native plants?

“The Blazing Star” quarterly magazine

Web Site: www.nanps.org

Facebook: www.facebook.com/nativeplant

Twitter: @tnanps

Please join us, like us, follow us, and support us by volunteering or making a donation

www.nanps.org